I will be reassigned to a new duty station in July of this year. Unofficial advance information from Headquarters, Marine Corps indicates that I'm due for an unaccompanied (i.e., no dependents) tour in the Far East - probably to the Marine Division on Okinawa. Such duty is of course a much desired career assignment, to be postponed only for good cause. If a July 1963 assignment to ACDA is not feasible (Colonel Vance would be the best reference on this), I would much appreciate consideration for such an assignment in late 1964 upon my return from the Far East.

Sincerely,

[Redacted Signature]

Major, U. S. Marine Corps
